LIFE DEPARTMENT.

I.—LIFE ASSURANCE BRANCH.

THE large proportion of NINE-TENTHS of the PROFITS is divided among the Policy-holders on the participating Scale every five years, and is allocated not only on the sums assured, but also on the previous additions.

The last Division of Profits was made as at 31st December, 1880, when there was declared a Bonus of £1 7s. 6d. per cent. per annum.

If taken as a percentage on the original sums assured, this Bonus is equivalent to an addition of from £2 11s. 4d. per cent. per annum on the oldest Policies, to £1 7s. 6d. per cent. on those now for the first time entitled to participate.

II.—ANNUITY BRANCH.

ANNUITIES, Immediate, Contingent, or Deferred, are granted on favourable terms.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The COMPANY INSURES against FIRE almost every description of Property, at Home or Abroad, at the lowest rates of Premium corresponding to the Risk.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The maps reduced from the Ordnance Survey Sheets of Scotland are deserving of a special word of praise, both on account of the care and skill with which they are delineated, and for the handy, portable shape in which they are issued. The scale—half-an-inch to the mile—is sufficiently large to allow of every farm, patch of wood, streamlet, or eminence likely to attract the notice of the tourist, being plainly denoted; and Mr John Bartholomew has shown excellent judgment, as well as bestowed great pains, in selecting the materials for the maps from the larger sheets. The heights of all the noteworthy eminences are given, but the roads and byeways of the country are indicated with special care. The result is a map at once clear, full, and accurate, and having the additional recommendations of being well mounted, tastefully tinted, and of convenient size."—Scotsman, 26th May 1875.

"We speak advisedly when we say that these maps are the only existing tourists' maps that can be depended upon for the exact distance from place to place marked on them. Not one of the hundreds of cheap maps even pretend to accuracy in this respect. . . . They will at once supersede all existing maps for the purposes of the tourist."—Courant.

"After a most careful scrutiny of the many points and places of interest on the West Coast, we can testify to the skill and accuracy of Mr Bartholomew; while it is an additional recommendation that the delicacy and clearness of the engraving render the maps pleasant to the eye."—North British Daily Mail.

"The map is carefully reduced from the Ordnance Survey; its scale is amply sufficient to show all the features likely to interest tourists and the general public."—Athenæum.

Selections from Opinions of the Press.

"We can heartily recommend the 'Handy General Atlas.' The maps are clear and easy of reference, while we have found by constant use that the selection of names is most judicious. The volume will prove useful to all readers of newspapers and popular books of travel."—Athenæum.

"We would especially desire to notice the 'Handy General Atlas,' illustrating Modern, Historical, and Physical Geography. It is really a most valuable work, and contains much matter which has not been set out in the same form."—Westminster Review.

"The 'Handy General Atlas' is a very excellent work."—Scotsman.

"The maps are remarkable for the clearness and accuracy of their execution, and embody the latest territorial changes, and the results of the most recent discoveries."—Courant.

PREFACE.

THE arrangement of the present issue of the GLASGOW POST-OFFICE DIRECTORY is similar to that of last year. The Banking Houses, and Carriers' Quarters, with hours of departure, instead of being in the Appendix, have been placed near the front of General Directory (see pages 31 to 47).

The General Directory includes Crosshill, Govanhill, Polmadie, Pollokshields East, Pollokshields West, Kinning Park, Partick, Hillhead, Kelvinside, Possilpark, Whiteinch, and Springburn.

Bearsden and Bothwell have for the first time been given in the Suburban Directory.

In the Street Directory (pages 565 to 788) the names of the intersecting streets are given in ordinary type, and the number affixed to the name of the Street denotes the Municipal or Parliamentary Ward; and where a Street is divided into several Wards, such as Buchanan Street, the numbers belonging to each Ward are given at the top, viz.: from 1 to 275 are in Ward 8, from 2 to 210 in Ward 7, from 220 to 314 in Ward 5, and from 283 to 295 are in Ward 10. It is hoped that this arrangement will facilitate the finding of the Ward in any Street of the City.

At pages 53 to 74 the names of the Streets are given with reference to their situation, and the number affixed to each Street indicates the Registration district, while the Italic letters prefixed to the name of each Street, Square, or Place, shows its position on the Large Map, which has been traced in Half-mile Squares, with similar letters on the margin at each side. Thus to find out Montgomery Crescent, marked B a, take the line B from top or bottom, and the line a from the sides, and trace till they meet, and within that square the place wanted will be found. To find College Station, marked G e on list, take G from top or bottom, and e from side, and trace in a similar way, and the Station will be found within the Half-mile Square where G and e meet.

The Map has been revised to date by John Bartholomew, Esq., showing the New Tramway Lines and other improvements, and is again placed at the end of the Directory. Statistics of Glasgow, and the Census of some of the principal places in Scotland, have been given (see pages 1099, 1100).

In the Appendix will be found Tables with despatches and arrivals of Mails, Lists of Post Towns, Post-Office Regulations, Telegraph information, Names of the Members of Parliament for Scotland, Local Institutions, &c.

The publishers return thanks to the gentlemen connected with the various Local Associations for their kindness in supplying much useful information. They also beg to thank their numerous subscribers for the patronage bestowed on the work for the long period of fifty-four years.

The printing has been done, as formerly, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

POST OFFICE, GLASGOW, May 28, 1881.
